SYNOPSIS

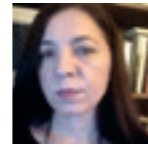

It appears as if it is an ordinary outing to a remote beach: four young women enjoy the warmth of the sun and the coolness of the sea. None of them is 'Winona'. The day gives way to silly games, girl talk, song and dance. Laughter is punctuated by tears. The tears washed away by make believe. Until the day comes to a close and our four heroines must say goodbye. Unassumingly mysterious and deeply moving, WINONA reveals itself with a language of intimacy, woven out of love and grief, and holds on to its heart wrenching secret till the very end.

SYNOPSIS

Victor, a Greek ex diving champion in his early 20's, lives with his grandmother in a seaside town of Greece. Longing for his triumph days and surviving working at a furniture factory, his grandmothers' death brings a sudden twist in his life. Driving an old dusty car, he begins a road trip to Germany. On the boat to Italy, he meets Matthias, an adventurous young German, who is returning home. Matthias convinces Victor to take him in his car and, as they drive north, Matthias pushes him to come out of his comfort zone and reveal the real reason of his trip. Victor's uptight character clashes with free-spirited Matthias. Their road trip will come to an end in Hamburg where, through the unpredictable turns of life, their questions will find the answers they so much desired.

SYNOPSIS

Following financial ruin, thirty-something bachelor Aris moves into his late grandfather's house, Aristides, a Greek Army veteran. As Aris reunites with old friends, life in conservative Papagou, the suburb of Army Generals, turns into a wishful new beginning. While rebooting his business and settling in, he inadvertently steps into his grandfather's «slippers». Soon, Aris befriends Vasos, a neighbour and old comrade of Aristides. As he becomes increasingly eager to live up to his grandpa's legacy, Aris stumbles on old family secrets. Through remodelling the family hero, Aris eventually reinvents himself.
